	Stringing was no problem. I tried it just because I was curious and a friend of mine gave it to me. This string is the best that I've played in the 20 years that I've been playing tennis. I was sceptical about thin strings and their durability due to my extreme topspin. But this string lasts like hell! Additionally it generates such a tremendous spin that my opponents frequently find themselves at the fence, inviting me to play drop shots. The latter also work nice due to the great feedback of the string. I honestly don't know what I could criticize on this string. After the first match I ordered a reel. Congrats Dr. Mauve!
